

History: Once upon a time, then and now

Siddiq Osman Noormuhammad

Once upon a time the azan was called in Makkah and Madina
Then it was called in the whole of Arabia Now it is called all over the world

Once upon a time Makkah and Madina were multicultural as they are now Then cities in other countries became multicultural Now cities of the U.K, Canada and America have become multicultural

Once upon a time the enemies of Islam wanted to kill Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him)
Then they demonized him
Now the racists draw his cartoons to mock him This unites the Muslims, makes Muslims more practicing, and increases the attachment of Muslims to the Prophet The racists are too much into booze, women and gambling and lead by the nose to know what's happening

Once upon a time communists dreamt of destroying religion saying religion was the opium of the people Then they gave Das Kapital to the intellectuals of communism as their opium Now liberals have given Christianity death by a thousand cuts by giving liberalism to their people as their opium The liberals succeeded in destroying Christianity in the west where the communists failed

Once upon a time as now, we had air, sunshine and rain the human body, male and female, and reproduction, animals, birds and fish,
 water, milk and honey,
 trees, flowers and vegetables, and many other creations of God
Then it was the same
Now it is the same hence the belief in God and the religion

Once upon a time Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) taught that God had ennobled all the children of Adam of all races and he taught the people to emancipate slaves and treat them as their brothers Then the freed slaves were appointed as army commanders, leaders, rulers and teachers Now they are emulated by Muslims as their greatest heroes

Once upon a time philosophers in the “Western Enlightenment” considered Africans as an inferior race Then their followers referred to them as “savages”
Now they are telling African to have “gay rights” to become civilized

Once upon a time all the people considered themselves to be human beings Then western scientists taught their people that scientifically if not democratically they were just like animals Now many of them are telling their people to believe that they are descendants of apes

Once upon a time some western Christians burnt some women at the stake accusing them of being witches Then they questioned whether women had a soul
Now many of their feminists have been groomed as dolls of capitalism

Once upon a time Fir‘awn oppressed the Jews and our Prophet Musa (peace be upon him) helped them Then Europeans oppressed the Jews and Muslims sheltered them Now the Jews are oppressing the Palestinians and political leaders of western and some Arab countries are coddling them Shame!

Once upon a time westerners invented the telephone and the aeroplane and they should be put only to good use Then they came up with technological advancements many of which are useful Now they have come up with the internet which should be used only to promote goodness and useful learning

Once upon a time two European countries had the greatest number of weapons of mass destruction Then two other European countries had them Now capitalism.inc and communism.org have them

Once upon a time in World War 2, German cities were reduced to ashes Then Capitalism Inc. reduced communist Vietnam to ashes
Now Capitalism Inc. has reduced the cities of Iraq to rubble

Once upon a time, the Christian crusaders waded through the blood of Muslims
Then they drove the Muslims out of Spain Then they went “slurp slurp” with the blood of the babies of Baghdad and “crunch crunch” with the rib bones of the babies of Afghanistan Now the Crusaders appear exhausted thank God

Once upon a time Europeans could just walk into Africa draw lines on a map and take countries as their colonies Then some had to fight to colonize some other countries Now westerners just destroy other countries whose political leaders do not obey their Establishment or use others to have them destroyed

Once upon a time gays were laughed at Then they were shunned
Now they put on women's costumes and proudly parade themselves as gays in some western cities in "Gay Parades" Shame!

Once upon a time most people earned their income through the sweat of their brow
Then a larger proportion of wealth began to be acquired through corruption Now most of the wealth of the very rich is "unearned wealth" through the stock exchange, financial corruption and other means

Once upon a time there was the Great Wall of China Then Muslims came up with beautiful breath-taking architecture
Now we have concrete jungles

Once upon a time Orthodox Christians built grand cathedrals and churches in western countries
Then more bars began to be built and fewer churches Now only the Chinese build churches and Muslims establish masajid in western countries

Once upon a time some people were very good Some were very bad while most were ordinary with some residual prejudice
Then it was the same
Now it is the same except that there has been a steady decline in goodness and morality

Once upon a time the ancient Prophets of Islam (peace be upon them) prayed, and spread Islam, goodness and piety Then Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) and his Companions prayed, and spread Islam, goodness and piety
Now Muslims in general are praying, and spreading Islam, goodness and piety
